

LIVING WITH A ROOMMATE

Living under the same roof with a friend or stranger can be difficult due to different lifestyles, habits and personalities.

TYPES OF ROOMMATES (you are bound to experience)

The Deep Sleepers¹

Your roommate's alarm clock has been ringing for 10 minutes and your roommate is still not waking up!

The Noise Maker²

Your roommate makes loud footsteps, turns up the volume when watching shows or talks loudly when playing online games.

The Obsessive Cleaner²

Does your roommate spend more time cleaning the apartment than studying?

The Slob¹

Your roommate dumps all his or her unwashed laundry or dirty dishes everywhere and doesn't clean up.

The One who Never Leaves²

Your roommate seems to be always in the apartment and never leaves for classes or leisure activities.

The Party Animals¹

It's exam week and your roommate invites friends over for parties and blasting music..

The Borrower²

"I borrow a bit only okay?" Whether is it your shampoo or toothpaste, your roommate either borrows and finishes them all, or never returns.

The Food Stealer²

Your half-eaten bag of chips magically disappeared overnight. Slowly, your chocolates and ice cream also disappeared..

The Perfect One²

The one who is accommodating, compromising and respectful. It is hard to find but not difficult to be one!
